Management Insights has been invited to participate at the Hitchman Executive Search Online Panel on ‘Corporate Agility’. Here are the results.

Together with certified partner Raymond Hofmann, we have been invited to participate at Hitchman Executive Search Online Panel on ‘Corporate Agility’. The study was conducted in 2018 with selected Swiss executives.

The results have been discussed at a high-calibre roundtable of agile experts. The conclusions were documented in “Corporate Agility”. These insights led to a set of thought pieces for boards and executive team.

We recommend this study for all executives that think about agility for their business.
